

Wilke family celebrates 2022 reunion after 2-year hiatus

After a two year hiatus due to COVID, 72 descendants of the Heinrich Wilhelm and Wilhelmine (Haverlah) Wilke families met July 16 at the Slaton Club House for the Annual Wilke Family Reunion.

Children of Heinrich and Wilhelmine include Ernest Wilke, Otto Wilke, Emil Casper Wilke, Hermina Wilke Franke, Louis William Wilke, Herman Wilke, Adolph William Wilke, Henry Heinrich Wilke, Alvina Wilke Hartman and Bertha Wilke Brieger.

Four families were represented at the reunion: Adolph (45), Bertha (7), Emil (12) and Louis (8).

A day of visiting, reminiscing, fellowship and a pot luck lunch was enjoyed by all.

Displays of the Wilke family history, family pictures and the Wilke Family Tree were discussed and updated.

The Adolph Wilke Family

Farm of Southland was recently designated as a "Family Land Heritage 100 Year Honoree" by the Ag Department of the State of Texas for 100 years of continuous operation by the Adolph Wilke family.

The certificate of honor along with all the supporting documentation was displayed by Sherri Brosch. What an outstanding achievement.

A silent auction was also enjoyed. The auction item attracting the most attention was a handmade set of wooden dominoes made from the wood inside the Adolph Wilke home in Southland by Deann Funderburk.

The dominoes also had the authentic signature of Adolph Wilke on the back. What a treasure.

After a bit of a bidding battle, the dominoes were won by Robbie Autry. Cindy Davis won a beautiful handmade quilted wall hanging made by Helen Stephenson.

Crystal Iacuone won a Slaton Bakery Coffee Cup and vanilla wafers donated by Jaime Fleming.

Crystal also won a crystal bowl filled with beautifully crocheted pot holders handmade by Nancy Harlan.

A solar butterfly donated by Cindy Davis was won by Janet Betts.

Slaton Bakery Bread and Jam donated by Evelyn Hobbs was won by Cindy Davis.

A Shiatsu Neck Massager donated by Cindy Davis was won by Gary Hobbs.

A bottle of Llano wine donated by Janet and Darrell Betts was won by Mark Wuensche.

Everyone enjoyed the friendly competition. All money was donated to the fund for future reunion expenses.

A business meeting was held to discuss the location of future reunions, date for 2023 and several other items.

The 2023 Annual Wilke Family Reunion will be on July 15, 2023 at the Slaton Club House.

The reunion has been organized for the last several years by Kristy Speck and her family. Sadly Kristy passed away this past September.

This year's reunion was organized by Clyde and Cam Wilke, Evelyn Hobbs and Bev Wilke.
